DECEMBER

THE GOLDEN GRAPEVINE

Our Western Luncheon certainly brought out some cow pokes, cattle rustlers, and saloon girls. A few rowdy ones ended up in our jail. Our sponsor for this luncheon was Humana. Everyone really enjoyed the music and songs provided by Amy Hughes of Sweet Pea's Table. She was accompanied by Roy Waddell with Double Edge. Congratulations to Jan Harbin and Charlie Cummings, who won the beautiful gift baskets from Dillard's for the best costumes. Thanks to Rebecca at Kroger for the beautiful Sunflower center pieces and to Winde for taking and developing our pictures. Your pictures can be picked up at our office. Thanks again to our volunteers who helped us with this fun filled event.

The Western theme was carried over to our Friday Night Dance where we boot scooted and waltzed the night away. Jean Gill won best costume contest at the dance that night.
